

$100 Gift

For a gift of $100, you will receive a one-year subscription to The Angelus.

The Angelus is a must-have for every Catholic family. Each issue is filled with brief, crisply-written articles covering a wide range of topics—all geared to help you grow in your faith. The new layout is sleek and clean and the photographs are stunning! There is something for each member of your family in every issue. (If you are currently a subscriber, thank you! You already know how worthwhile The Angelus is. We will be glad to send a subscription to a friend or loved one of your choosing.)

$250 Gift

For a gift of $250, you will receive a one-year subscription to The Angelus, three audio CDs from the Lepanto Lecture series, and the fascinating DVD of the first forty years of the SSPX.

These audio CDs are from the Angelus Press's popular Lepanto Lectures series presented by the incomparable Christopher Check. Each talk features a lively presentation of some of the key personalities and events in the history of the Church: The Cristeros, The Inquisition, and The Knights Templar. Mr. Check's talks make learning about history informative and fun!

Forty Years of Fidelity guides you from the humble beginnings of the Society, the turbulent years that followed, and the triumphant achievements that solidified the worldwide presence of the Society that we know today. This beautiful DVD will be a treasure in your home for years to come.

$500 Gift

For a gift of $500, you will receive a one-year subscription to The Angelus plus a copy of Bishop Bernard Tissier de Mallerais's Marcel Lefebvre: The Biography signed by His Excellency.

Critics have called this biography: "magisterial," "well-researched, serious, and honest," "reveals unsuspected facets. A very complete work," "a rich, important contribution to contemporary religious history," "a literary event," "a landmark." Influential French traditional Catholic publisher Jean Madiran said, "...the fruit of several years of considerable labor. The book is rich in documentation, often unpublished, and in many theological observations." Bishop Tissier was a close associate of Archbishop Lefebvre. An autographed copy of this incredible labor of love will no doubt be a keepsake in your family for generations.

All gifts must be postmarked no later than April 30, 2013, in order to receive these special offers.
